

CONSENT and RELEASE FORM

Date: October 12, 2006

Dear Autodesk, Inc.:

By signing and returning this consent and release form, I agree to the following terms that will govern the use, publication, modification, reproduction, and distribution of my drawing file(s) and/or related imagery, including my company name, company logos, product descriptions and uses, etc. Autodesk and its authorized affiliates may use my drawing file(s) and/or related imagery, at no charge, in Autodesk's products worldwide, including printed documents, PDF files, Help files, and sample files. Autodesk may use, reproduce, publish, modify, and distribute my drawing file(s) and/or related imagery, in whole or in part, alone or with other materials, perpetually, worldwide, and at no charge, but may not materially change or modify it without my prior consent or the consent of my authorized representative (a material change shall mean a substantial modification in the substance and shall not include resizing or other minor editorial changes). Autodesk may not allow any other entity to use this material for its sole benefit without our prior permission, except third parties authorized to exercise the above rights on Autodesk's behalf. Autodesk's authorized uses shall include advertising, internet, video, webcasts, slide presentations, other media, public relations (including, but not limited to, publications, internal newsletters, videos, annual reports, direct marketing), and in other promotional materials. Except for this right to use my drawing file(s) and/or related imagery, this consent does not include a transfer to Autodesk of any intellectual property rights in the material. I further hereby release Autodesk from any liability arising from the exercise of the rights granted here. Autodesk will include the following credit line when my drawing file(s) and/or imagery is used.
